Dear Sir

FIRE SERVICES EXAMINATIONS – TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS
DCOL 4/2003

Following a number of queries over the wording in DCOL 4/2003, paragraph 6, I can confirm that the proposed dates for both the final Part II examinations and Part I written examinations are open to ALL candidates. The phrase 'who already have partial passes' is incorrect in the context of this paragraph as it should refer to the re-sit dates, therefore clarified in paragraph 7.

The ODPM will in due course clarify the wording on a future DCOL Circular. In Scotland, the DFmr letter, to be issued, will have this wording removed.

Yours sincerely

D J Stanley
